

Pains

Describe the pains (or disadvantages) of your character. What about the current situation isn't working, what is missing, and the impact the current situation is having on the character and its community.

Gains

Describe the gain (or advantages) of your characters. Identify such things as how the character benefits from the current situation or possible developments, who else benefits from the current situation, and what is gained from it.